Homemade Holiday Gift Ideas

There's no better gift than a gift made from the heart! Here are some easy, crafty gift ideas that are perfect for your friends, parents, teachers, and grandparents.

Christmas cookie cake. Spread cookie dough into a 9-inch cake pan to create a super-sized cookie, bake it and add your own special touch with frosting or sprinkles.

Ink blot prints. Grab some medium weight art paper and fold it in half. Open it back up, then use paintbrushes or cotton swabs to dab paint onto one side of the paper fold. Fold the other side of paper onto the painted side and press down. Open to reveal design and lay flat to dry. (You can even frame it to add an extra special touch!)

Java jackets. Cut 4 inches from the leg of an old sock and use it to create a sleeve for coffee or hot chocolate to go. Use buttons, felt, felt stickers and glue to add embellishments.

Coupon book classic. Offer your services or specialties by creating paper coupons that offer free hugs, cleanings, laundry services, or whatever else you're good at!
