Web site/Internet Privacy Statement

Thank you for visiting Bronco Federal Credit Union's web site and reviewing our Internet privacy statement. It is our goal to limit the collection and storage of personal information necessary for us to administer our business, provide you with quality service and offer you opportunities we think might be of interest. We do not disclose any personal information collected from our web site to unaffiliated organizations.

To provide you with broader access to additional information, Bronco Federal Credit Union's web site also contains links to other sites. While we hope these organizations join us in respecting your privacy, Bronco Federal Credit Union is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of these other web sites.

In order for us to conduct the business of the credit union, we may disclose all of the information we collect to companies who perform marketing or other services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements so that we may provide members with competitive products and services. We may also disclose nonpublic personal information about you under circumstances as permitted or required by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union, follow your instructions as you authorize, or protect the security of our financial records. We are committed to preserving the privacy of our members.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, or procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

In the event you have concerns or a problem arising with regard to our privacy practices, it should be directed to us in writing as follows:
